FRESHMEN LACK SPIRIT.

At Class Meeting Yesterday Freshmen are Told to Wake up.—Must Show More Interest in Their Class.

A meeting of the Freshman Class was held in Huntington Hall, Thursday, at 1 P.M., in an attempt to arouse enthusiasm for Field Day. Wonsen, '07, called attention to the fact that though the football game was the most important contest, the losing of the tug-of-war and relay race would lose the day.

President Leavell of the Junior Class then spoke on the general lack of spirit that the Freshmen have shown thus far. He advised the class to be very careful in the selection of officers, and to select those men who were showing the most spirit and interest. He concluded by saying that though it was late, it was not too late to wake up, and called attention to the fact that whatever reputation '09 made in the coming contest would stick with them through the entire four years.

President Scharff mentioned that attendance at class meetings had dwindled down to about fifty, and that many of the men who had gone out for the teams at first had quit because they thought they would not have a show.

Dickerman resigned as manager of the tug-of-war team, and Scharff was chosen to succeed him.

An assessment of one dollar for athletic expenses was voted. A committee consisting of Ladd, Whittaker, Scharff, Wild, and Blake, was chosen to collect the assessment.

TENNIS WITH BROWN.

A match is to be played on Saturday with Brown University on the courts at Jarvis Field, Cambridge. Six team matches will be played, four in singles, each to count one point, and two in doubles, each to count 1 and $\frac{1}{2}$ points. Last year Tech defeated Brown by a score of three to two, and this year we should do even better, as almost all of last year's team are back at the Institute.

Those who will play are: P. R. Fanning, '08, R. D. Gatewood, '06, J. I. B. Larned, and J. S. Nicholl, '07, in the singles, and Larned and Nicholl, Fanning and Gatewood in the doubles. Playing will commence about 1 P.M.

A meeting of the Tennis Association was held on October 6 for the purpose of electing officers for this year. R. D. Gatewood, '06, was elected President, J. I. B. Larned, Vice-president, and J. S. Nicholl, '07, Manager.

The following are the results of the Tennis Trials thus far:

SINGLES—FIRST ROUND.

Cullimore defeated Hosmer, 6-2, 6-2. Fanning defeated Davidson, 6-1, 6-1. Symes defeated York, 6-0, 6-4. Garrett defeated Souther, by

FINAL ACTION ON ALLIANCE.

President Pritchett Makes Statement of the Final Action Taken by the Corporation on the Proposed Alliance with Harvard. Urges Hearty Co-operation in the Future Upbuilding of Technology.

The following is the statement of the Alumni and former Students submitted by President Pritchett:—

TO ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS:

At a meeting of the Corporation of the Institute held on October 11 a report was received from the Executive Committee, advising the Corporation that in the view of the Committee the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts relative to the land on Boylston Street made it impossible for the Institute to take further steps in the plan of co-operation with Harvard University which has been under consideration the past year.

In view of the facts set forth the Corporation thereupon adopted a resolution instructing the Executive Committee to notify the authorities of Harvard University that the Institute found itself unable to proceed with the plan of co-operation, and to express at the same time the appreciation of the Corporation for the fairness and courtesy with which the authorities of Harvard had joined in this common effort to solve a difficult question.

The Corporation further authorized the President to communicate this result to the Alumni, Faculty, and friends of the Institute, and to invite their hearty co-operation in the future upbuilding of the Institute.

This decision disposes not only of the matter of an alliance, but also, for some time to come, at least, of the question of a site. It seems clear that the Institute's home must continue to be, for a number of years, its present one, with such added room and buildings as may be found necessary and practicable. With these questions settled it is clear that the duty of each Institute man, of each friend of the Institute is to go heartily and enthusiastically at the problems which lie immediately and clearly before us, with the ambition to make the Institute the most efficient means possible for ministering to the intellectual, moral, and social life of its students. The questions upon which we have honestly differed are now out of the way. Let us now pull together for the solution of our common problems. Some of these problems need to be attacked at once. Outside of the question of increased endowment, which is most pressing, additional land ought to be secured as soon as possible; a site for the Walker Memorial Building must be provided and the building started as promptly as possible; and an additional building such as a chemical laboratory and the erection of one or two modest dormitories on our land in Brookline adjoining the athletic field would serve a great need of the student life. To the solution of these pressing and specific problems the Corporation asks your heartiest support and assistance.

HENRY S. PRITCHETT.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

The first business meeting of the E. E. Society was held Tuesday, in 28 Lowell, and the following men were admitted to membership: 1906, O. B. Blackwell, G. C. Furness, H. R. Philbrick, C. D. Richardson, L. E. Stone; 1907, H. P. Baker, E. B. Bartlett, L. W. Brock, W. E. Calley, J. J. Cartagena, B. F. Carter, E. L. Chaffee, B. F. Chandler, R. H. Crosby, C. S. Dean, J. M. Frank, C. V. Turner, A. K. Tylee, C. B. Williams, M. J. Gibbons, Jr., F. E. Goodnow, A. E. Greene, L. F. Hallett, J. B. Harlow, C. A. Hoefer, R. H. Jackson, I. W. Kahn, W. F. Kimball, R. F. Knight, A. T. Kolatschinsky, M. E. McGregor, A. Macomber, J. Mather, F. S. McGregor, P. R. Nichols, T. C. Oehne, H. G. Pastoriza, M. H. Pease, H. D. Reed, J. R. Reyburn, L. P. Russell, M. W. Sage, E. P. Slack, W. A. Staples, R. E. Thayer, J. E. Tresnon, E. E. Turkington.

The plans for the year were outlined by President Wetterer, and this year should certainly be the most prosperous in the history of the Society. All Juniors of Courses VI. and VIII. who are not already members should leave their names at the Cage for W. J. Cady or E. B. Rowe, Secretary.

1906 NOMINATIONS.

The attention of the Senior Class is called to the fact that the nominations for class officers are due at the Cage, Saturday, October 14, at 1 P.M. It is of the utmost importance that the class consider this matter carefully and see to it that the best men are nominated and that the nominations are in on time.

REWARD! HCET; DRAVRAH.

The two word-mazes above are the names of two American Educational Institutions. A suitable reward will be given to the person sending in a correct solution, together with the five best grinds, the contest to remain open for some time and the decisions as to the accuracy of the puzzle solution and the fitness of the grinds to be decided by a competent set of judges. Guess right, slam hard, and get the reward. Address Grind Editor of Technique, at Cage.

WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., REAR

Although the action of the Corporation, a statement of which is published in another column, has been anticipated since the Technology decision in regard to the Forward! Boylston Street land, it is gratifying to have the matter finally ended. We know now just where the Institute stands, and with that knowledge, all Technology men and other friends of Tech should turn to the task of uplifting the strength and fame of the Institute, and should also unite with President Pritchett in his constant labors for the "intellectual, moral and social" welfare of its students.

From the number of nominations turned in so far for the Senior Class officers, it would seem that the members of that class do not realize the full importance of the choice which they must exercise this year. Next to the election of the Class Day Committee, no more responsible function is exercised by a class as a whole than the selection of the men who are to conduct its affairs during its Senior year.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM.

At the Cross Country Run yesterday from West Roxbury to Tech Field, twenty-one men took part. The men by classes were: '06-10; '07-2; '08-7; '09-2. If the Seniors can give the time for it, the lower classmen can. All candidates should be on the Hare and Hound chase, Saturday.

C. E. SMOKER.

The Civil Engineering Society held its first meeting on Wednesday evening, at the Tech Union. Secretary Hastings read a list of twenty-eight names proposed for membership. These will be acted upon at the next meeting. Nearly 100 men were present to hear the speeches of Professors Swain, Allen and Porter.

Professor Swain raised and answered the question, "Why do we come to the Institute?" That is, some are sent, some come to have a good time, others think they will get a position when they get through, but the great reason should be to fit oneself to be of some service in the world. He concluded with the remark, "Don't work too hard, but be effective!"

Professor Allen then spoke upon the topic, "The Relation of an Engineering Training to Business Life." His point was that it compels one to think straight and to be honest. Professor Allen also touched upon the future of engineering life.

President Patch then introduced Professor Porter, who was to talk about a "little bit of everything." His first theme was the sequence of "adopt," "adapt," and "adept." He also cited instances of the remarkable development along the three following lines: Improvement of the Water Supply; Irrigation; and Water Power. Professor Porter then concluded with a few striking quotations relative to Course I. men. Ice cream and coffee were then served, and after a few Tech songs the meeting broke up.

RECENT ENDOWMENT.

Charles Tidd Baker, deceased, the well known insurance broker, whose office was at 85 Water street, gave twenty thousand dollars to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. In connection with this handsome gift, he says in his will, "I hope this bequest will lead others to do likewise."

M. E. SOCIETY.

The Mining Engineering Society held its first Smoker at the Tech Union yesterday evening. A large number of members was present to listen to the talk on "Cyaniding of Gold Ores" by Mr. J. H. Batcheller, 1900, who has recently been engaged in Gold Mining in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

The marriage is announced of Jasper Whiting, III. '89, to Miss Marion McBurney Schlesinger of Brookline, on Tuesday, October 10.

TECHNOLOGY BAND.

Much enthusiasm was manifested at the second rehearsal of the Technology Band, Wednesday afternoon at the Irvington Street Armory. The band this year numbers about twelve men and is under the directorship of C. W. Keniston, '08, who was a member of last year's band. At this early date conditions seem to indicate the formation of a band on a much better basis than that of former years. Among the spectators who showed much interest was Col. Benyon, drill master in the Boston Public Schools.

The men thus far reported for the different positions are: C. W. Keniston, '08, Leader, D. Belcher, '09, clarionets; S. L. Burgher, '09, cornet; T. G. Chapman, '09, C. W. Clark, '08 alto horns; L. C. Shaw, '09, slide trombone; C. F. Willis, '06, baritone horn; A. H. Ginzberg, '09, piccolo; E. J. Doucette, '07, bass horn; K. T. Blood, '09, drum; A. F. Jackson, '09 cymbals; C. D. COMMUNICATION.

The Editors do not hold themselves responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

Sophomores!—Your football team plays Brookline High at the Technology Field this afternoon at three o'clock. Every man who is in anyway connected with the Class of 1908 must be out with the team. Brookline High is going to turn out a large cheering section and it is up to you,
the Sophomores, to show that you have just as much enthusiasm and are just as much interested in the success of your football team. The price of admission to the field is only fifteen cents. If any man cannot afford that amount the manager of the team will arrange it so that he can see the game.

Tomorrow afternoon the team plays Bridgewater Normal at Bridgewater.
The men leave the South Station at 1.05 P.M. Here is another chance for the Sophomore to show his class spirit. No team ever won a game when it knew that no one supported
it. Cheering often carries a ball over the goal line when a team's brute strength could not have done so.

Now, Sophomores, it's up to you!
Every man at the Field this afternoon and as many as possible at Bridgewater tomorrow.

GLEE CLUB.

The trials for the Glee Club have thus far been very satisfactory with the exception that there is an un-board in the Dean's Office where at times are printed notices of opportunities for outside work during the term.
